History of United Nations

24 OCTOBER 1945

51 Member States

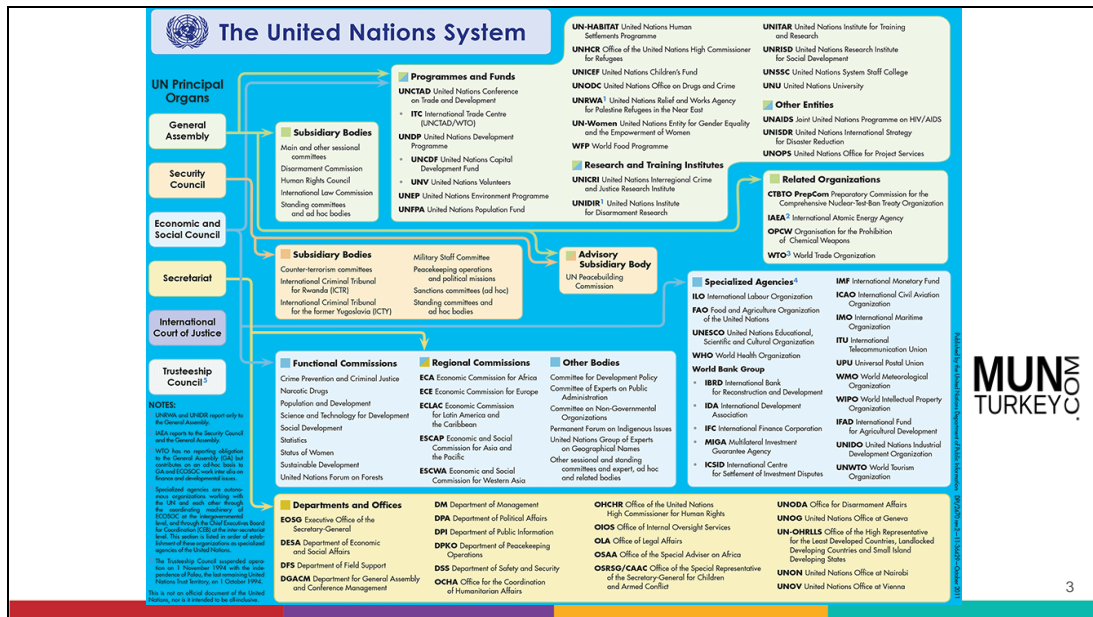

The Principles of the United Nations:

- All Member States have sovereign equality
- All Member States must obey the Charter
- Countries must try to settle their differences by peaceful means
- Countries must avoid using force or threatening to use force
- The UN may not interfere in the domestic affairs of any country
- Countries should try to assist the United Nations

Picture from BERMUN

→ Focus on the issue that matters to your member nation the most and how that relates to the topics to be debated at the conference.

→ 150 words maximum is a good idea.

→ Don't be pretentious, cheesy, or vain in your speech.

Opening Speech

→ Make sure you spend at least three quarters of the time looking at your audience.

→ Never ever put your hands to your side or in your pocket.

→ Speaking quick is not a speaking style – it distracts audience from your message and makes you seem like you want to end the speech as soon as possible.

→ Shoulders back, back straight, and walk at a good pace with confidence and preparedness.

General Speakers' List

To join the speakers list, you'll have to raise your placard and wait for your chair to recognize you.

The speakers list generally has 90 seconds per speaker. After the speaker is done, the speaker could yield the floor back to the chair, to another delegate or to Point of Information.
